Man Arrested for Reckless Driving and Multiple Active Warrants

On December 17th, 2023, a Manchester Police officer attempted to pull over a driver for a traffic violation but was unsuccessful. The driver, identified as Michael Neuberger of Goffstown, sped down Spruce Southback Alley and narrowly missed colliding with another vehicle. Although the officer followed the driver briefly, the pursuit was quickly terminated.

Further investigation led to the discovery that Neuberger was driving a car borrowed from someone else and failed to return it as promised. Based on the car owner's report and Neuberger's description, it was determined that he was the driver involved in the incident.

Later that morning, police found Neuberger asleep in the same car. He was arrested and charged with Unauthorized Use of a Motor Vehicle, Disobeying a Police Officer, Driving After Revocation/Suspension, and Reckless Operation.

At the time of his arrest, Neuberger had six active warrants, including five for felony theft and one for felony robbery issued by Hillsborough County. Additionally, he was out on bail for a previous arrest in the same month. Neuberger was scheduled to appear in court for an arraignment on December 18th, 2023, in Hillsborough Superior Court North.
